GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Joy

A place that brings happiness, where you can hear people laughing and see people smiling.

Accessible for everyone

There is something for everyone to enjoy no matter a person's age, socio-economic status, cultural background... etc.

Belong

A place to see and be seen, a strong sense of community that is comfortable and welcoming. A place that has staying power.

Bridging Communities

Create a central hub that unites the residents of Upper County - from Elk Heights to Snoqualmie Pass and everyone in between.

Year-Round Health and Enjoyment

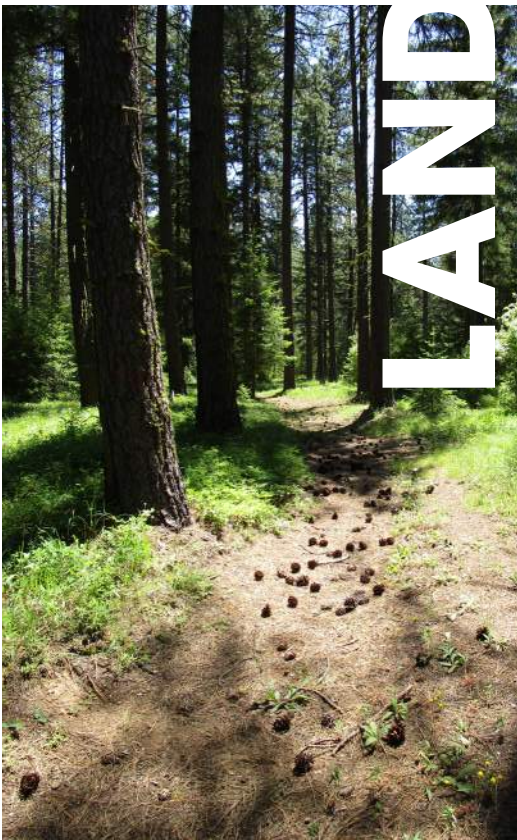

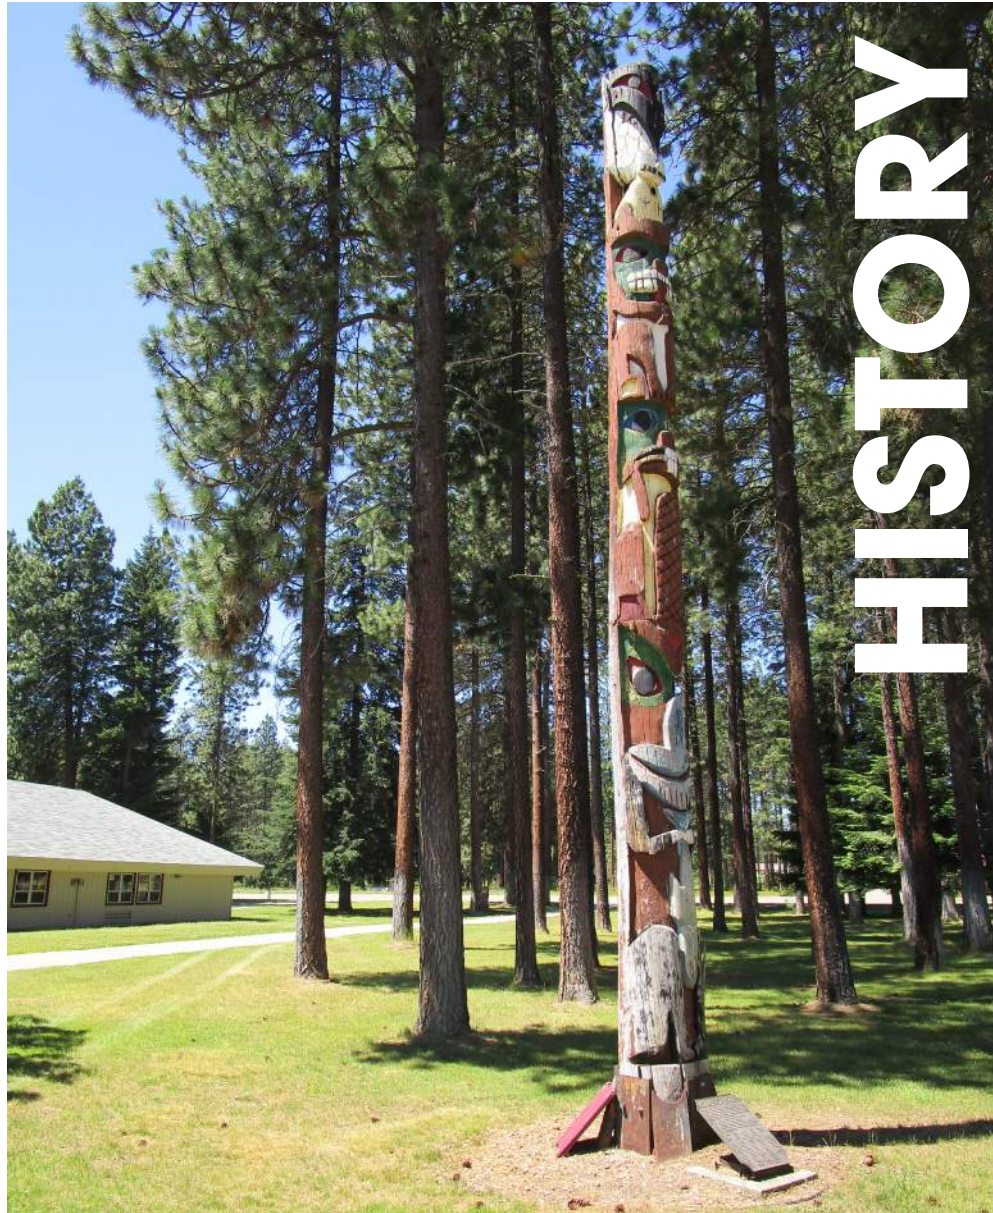

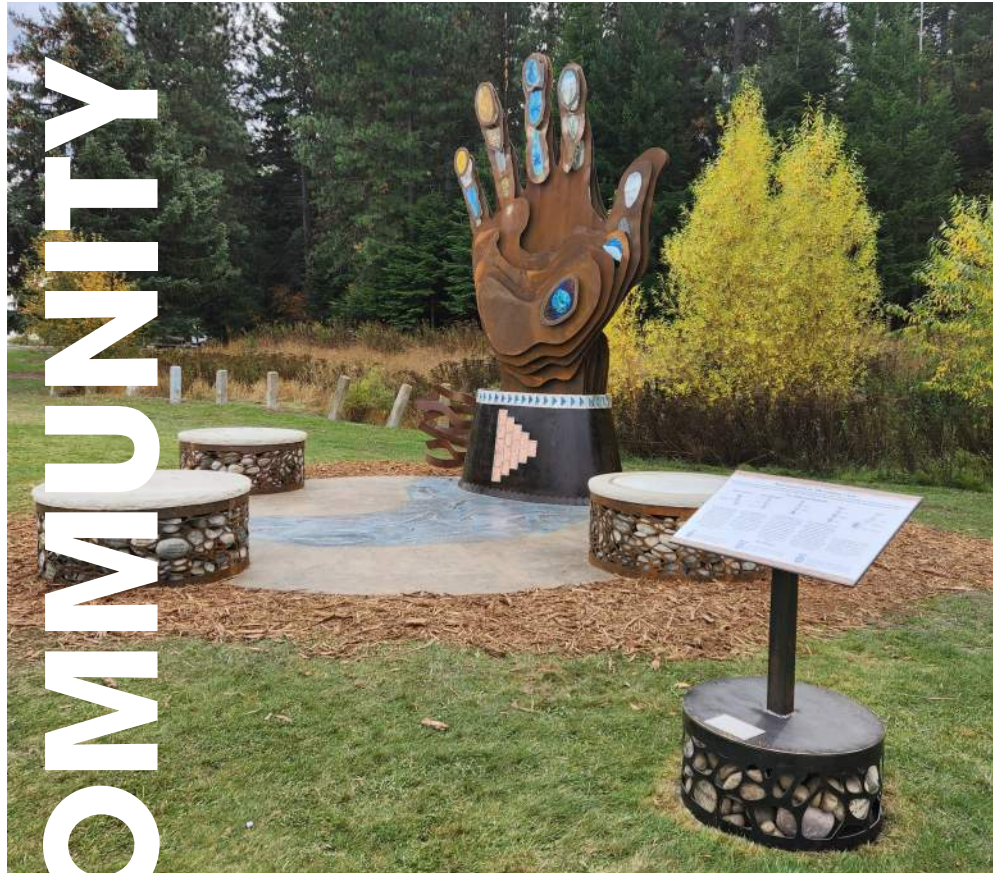

A building that is thriving and vibrant throughout all four seasons. A place for social and emotional health as well as physical health.

Stewardship

A design that is for the greater community and practices fiscal responsibility of the funding.
Simple, straight-forward architecture.

Celebrate

The surrounding trees, the land, and the history of the region.
